

POLICE PUZZLED AS TO ASSAULT CASE

Negro Arrested Not Right Opp. and Another, Identified by Miss Weiss, Proves Alibi.

SCENE OF MANY CRIMES

Murder and Assault Not Unknown Occurrences in "Dead Man's Hollow."

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Washington, D. C., Sept. 30.—The police are puzzled over the case of the shooting of young Mullen, the criminal assault upon Miss Weiss, his fiancée, while he was escorting her through the woods at the Virginia end of the Acqueduct Bridge late yesterday afternoon.

Miss Weiss was brought to this city this afternoon for the purpose of having her identity as the negro in jail charged with having assaulted her. She could not do so, but later she saw a negro on the street who she declared was the guilty man. The negro was arrested, but proved an alibi without trouble. The first negro arrested is being held.

Although Commonwealth's Attorney Meade is inclined to put full faith in the story as told by Miss Weiss, the police of this city are inclined to think that the crime may have been committed by someone other than a negro.

This last is but one of many crimes which have occurred near the vicinity of "Deadman's Hollow," not far from the Virginia end of the Acqueduct Bridge, several of them involving murder, and some of them criminal assault also. The vicinity is one of great activity in the day, but the scene of the crime is lonely and dismal even after dark, owing to the dense woods and the sparseness of the population. The Washington police have often urged that the place is not safe after dark, especially for young women, and lone pedestrians.

The negroes of that section are bad, and riots are frequent. It is a picturesque locality, on the road to Fort Myer and Arlington, and tens of thousands of Washington people frequent the sylvan dells in the woods on either side of the highway.

WAS DEMAND FOR CARMACK.

Ex-Governor Cox Declares There Was Popular Call for Candidacy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., September 30.—The announcement of former Senator Edward Carmack that he will be a candidate for Governor of Tennessee, has created much interest in East Tennessee, where he is more popular than ever since he was defeated for senator.

Speaking of Mr. Carmack's candidacy, former Governor John I. Cox, whose home is in Bristol, said: "I am not surprised at the announcement of Mr. Carmack. The demand was so overwhelming that it could not be resisted. No man ever became a candidate under more favorable auspices, and he who cannot see the outcome is not wise. It is understood that Mr. Carmack, after his defeat for the Senate, desired to engage in private enterprise, and so he has in a manner reluctantly yielded to the demands of the people who have honored him."

Mr. Cox thinks there is more than mere gossip in the story that Mr. Carmack and Senator Bob Taylor, notwithstanding their fierce fight for the senatorial honor, have become political bedfellows. Each, he says, saw the desirability and convenience of such a thing.

SLATE IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Republicans Looking Forward to Next Year.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., September 30.—Political predictions up to date suggest the following Republican slate for 1908:

Gov. Governor—Charles Wesley Swisher, Fairmont, Marion county.

Secretary of State—Stewart F. Reed, Clarksburg, Harrison county.

Superintendent of Free Schools—M. P. Shavkov, Charleston, Kanawha county.

Treasurer—Newton Ogden, St. Marys, Pleasants county.

Attorney General—W. G. Conley, Kingwood, Preston county.

The fight for Auditor will rest between J. K. Hall, Wheeling, Ohio county, and Sherman Darst, Ripley, Jackson county.

It looks now like the bitterest of all the contests will be between Hall and Darst, and as the latter points now the latter has a little the best of it.

TABLET TO EDMUND PENDLETON.

One Just Completed in the North Side of Bruton Church.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., September 30.—A tablet has just been completed in the north aisle of Bruton Church to mark the spot where lie the remains of Judge Edmund Pendleton, the distinguished jurist.

The remains of Judge Pendleton and those of his wives were brought here some months ago and reinterred in the north aisle of Bruton Church.
